MODERATE RISK — Review One-Sided Clauses & Add Missing Protections

1 Critical / High Risks • 0 Moderate Risks • 1 Missing Protective Rules

■ Plain-English Summary:
Your document was evaluated with an overall MEDIUM legal risk profile (Score: 40/100). We detected 1 missing rules/clauses and 1 dangerous one-sided clauses. Please read the action steps below before signing or making payments.

1. IDENTIFIED UNFAIR TRAPS & DANGEROUS COVENANTS

#1. Absence of Limitation of Liability Cap [HIGH SEVERITY]

"No cap on indirect, special, punitive, or consequential damages."

■■ Why this hurts you: What this means for you: There is no limit on how much money the other party can demand from you if something goes wrong.

Statutory Basis: Section 73, Indian Contract Act, 1872

Safe Revision Demand: Neither party shall be liable for indirect or consequential damages. Maximum aggregate liability shall not exceed total fees/rent paid in preceding 12 months.

2. MISSING ESSENTIAL RULES & PROTECTIVE CLAUSES (1)

Clause Name	Priority	Why Everyday Citizens Need This Rule
Term and Termination with Cure Period	HIGH	Ensures fair exit rights with reasonable notice.

3. PRIORITIZED ACTION ROADMAP (WHAT STEP YOU SHOULD TAKE)

Step 1 (Do Not Sign As-Is): Request the owner / employer / counterparty to amend the identified one-sided clauses before executing the agreement.

Step 2 (Clause Revision Demand): Send a written revision request (via WhatsApp/Email) to replace: Absence of Limitation of Liability Cap.

Step 4 (Insert Missing Protections): Add the missing protective rules into the draft: Term and Termination with Cure Period.

Step 5 (Payment Safety): Always pay rent, security deposits, or fees through verifiable banking channels (NEFT/RTGS/UPI); never pay cash without an official signed receipt.

Step 6 (Legal Notice If Disputed): In case of existing breach or non-refund, use our 'Legal Notice & PDF Drafter' tab to issue a 15-day formal RPAD demand notice.
